

Baltimore Beer Week announces the 2017 Class of inductee's to the Baltimore Beer Legends Hall of Fame

Baltimore, MD (August 21st 2017) – Baltimore Beer Week announced today that it will kick-off this year with the annual Baltimore Beer Legends Hall of Fame luncheon on Friday October 13th from 11:30am – 1:30pm to be held at the Heavy Seas Ale House.

This year's 2017 inductee's will include: Bill Oliver (Oliver Brewing Co, Wharf Rat). We will also officially honor Baltimore's very first brewing family – John Leonard Barnitz and his son Elias Daniel Barnitz who opened the very first brewery in Baltimore in 1748!

“The Baltimore Beer Legends Hall of Fame is dedicated to annually inducting individuals based on the outstanding contribution to the beer industry in Baltimore and the surrounding Chesapeake region” said Joe Gold founder and organizing committee chair of Baltimore Beer Week and the Baltimore Beer Legends Hall of Fame.

The mission of the Baltimore Beer Legends Hall of Fame is to recognize and honor men and women, past and present, who by their innovation, achievement, influence and/or contribution, and by the example of their lives, personify the great contribution that beer has made to our way of life in the “Land of Pleasant Living”.
